The FORCE
lives in Colorado

a community of fans

Denver is home to the Rocky Mountain FanForce, the local chapter of an organization of fans that spans the globe.

FanForce started out as an extension of the bulletin boards on theforce.net website, now it exists as friends all over the world who have a wide range of interests and come together locally to share them.

FanForce isn't a costuming group, a prop-building group, a gaming group, a collecting group, a book club, a Star Wars group, a Buffy group or a Lord of the Rings group, we're all of that and more, mostly we have fun.

Join us and find out.

QUESTIONS ABOUT

ROCKY MOUNTAIN

FANFORCE

A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

What is a Fan Force?

FanForce is the physical, grass-roots extension of THEFORCE.NET's global, online presence.

The Rocky Mountain FanForce became the official Colorado Chapter of FanForce in the summer of 2001, since then, we have become the fastest growing FanForce region on the discussion boards, going from 8th to 1st in number of messages in the United States in just two months. We let people know this by our group's slogan "a Force to be reckoned with"

We also get together with other fan groups to participate in events, we have joined with the 501st Mountain Garrison, the Rebel Legion and the Order of the Grey Jedi on many occasions.

Sounds great, how do I join?

Joining FanForce is easy! Click on the Our FanForce Board link on our website, www.rmff.net . Just register your username on the Jedi Council Forums and start hanging out with people in your area!

There is no cost to join and no membership dues. No requirements beyond taking part and having fun.

What activities do you do?

Online Discussions - In our area of THEFORCE.NET's Jedi Council BBS

Monthly Meetings - We meet every third weekend either at someone's home or at the Dave & Busters at Colorado and I-25, check our website for details.

Charity Work - We go to Children's Hospital in costume to entertain the patients, we also do several things a year to benefit our chosen charity, Urban Peak Youth Shelters.

Group Outings - A joint camping trip with the Phoenix and New Mexico FanForce's is planned for the summer, plus the Renaissance Fair and other events.
