opening day party
Thursday, May 16th

The Dave and Buster's located in the Westminster Promenade - 10667 Westminster Blvd, will be having an Attack of the Clones opening day party. They will have 2 Pod Racer games linked up and outside under a canopy, an area for vendors, fan clubs, trivia games, CCGs, theatre style seating on the lower level showing Episodes I thru IV back to back throughout the day, and Powercard giveaways and discounts to those in costume.

We will be helping out with a silent auction to benefit our charity, Urban Peak. Urban Peak serves teenagers in Denver with housing, food and shelter. We'll be showing up in costume (we'll be in costume a lot that week) and generally having a good time.

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN FAN FORCE

"a Force to be reckoned with"

What is a Fan Force?

FanForce is the physical, grass-roots extension of THEFORCE.NET's global, online presence. FanForce is about getting all fans together and helping them meet and interact with other fans in their "physical" community. If there is a convention, free movie screening, book signing, all users in that particular area get together as a group, a FANFORCE, and take part in the event.

The Rocky Mountain Fan Force became the official Colorado Chapter of FanForce in the summer of 2001, since then, we have become the fastest growing FanForce region on the discussion boards, going from 8th to 1st in number of messages in the United States in just two months. We let people know this by our group's slogan "a Force to be reckoned with"

Sounds great, how do I join?

Joining FanForce is easy! There is a link to the Denver area of THEFORCE.NET on our website, www.rmff.net. Just register your username on the Jedi Council Forums and start hanging out with people in your area! There is no cost to join and no membership dues. No requirements beyond taking part and having fun.

What activities do you do?

- Online Discussions - In our area of THEFORCE.NET's Jedi Council BBS
- Monthly Meetings - In Denver, a Colorado Springs chapter also meets monthly
